- 25X1 1. A railway siding is being built to connect the cement works at Wierzbica with the main Radom-Skarzysko line. Work has started on the construction of a road from the works to join the Radom-Krakow road. In 1951 the work was concentrated in the Radom area.
2. The Military Tele-Communications Equipment Factory (Fabryka Aparatów Wojskowych Tele-Komunikacja), formerly the Erickson factory, ul. Zbrowskiego (formerly ul. Kozienicka), Radom, employs approximately 1,000 workers, in two shifts. The production manager is Kozłowski, a prominent Communist. Production consists of transmitter-receiver sets for the armed forces, and telephone equipment for the Air Force and State administration. Twelve Industrial Guards are quartered in the factory area.
3. The leather factory at Krzeszowice is now only producing sheepskin coats for the army. Raw hides are obtained from the USSR and the chemicals are imported from East Germany.
4. The furniture factory (Fabryka Przemysłu Drzewnego) located at Goscicino, approximately 5 kms. west of Wejherowo, changed over to the manufacture of ammunition cases.
5. The water bottle and button factory at Czestochowa, which fulfills military requirements, had to cease production in December 1951 because of a shortage of raw materials.
6. The Baildon Iron and Steel Works near Katowice are producing the following types of spring and structural steel: MFW, MFM, RMB, PMS, SBM, SBMh, RSK, V660, LAS, LD 5m. These steel types are classified according to the German register.
